GOPAC
CRANS MONTANA FORUM
18th yearly session
Monaco, June 28 to July 1, 2007

Dear

Since 1989 the yearly session of the Crans Montana Forum has been « the » meeting place for the world's decision-makers. This year once again the Forum will assist Governments from more than a hundred and twenty countries to progress on the paths of international cooperation and will have a definite impact on the trade and investment strategies of numerous companies.

The major challenges our societies are facing will be debated by key political, governmental and corporate leaders together with international organization and civil society officials, members of universities and religious dignitaries. You will find enclosed a preliminary programme for your information.

In the framework of the Official Programme, we organise an Extraordinary Meeting under the Co-Presidency of Mr. John Williams, Chairman of GOPAC and Mr. David Nussbaum, CEO of Transparency International on the following topic:

“the Fight against Corruption”

We would be pleased to welcome you personally among numerous MPs from around the world who will attend this important event.

Mr. J. Williams and I do hope that you will accept to extend this invitation to your Members. It will be for them a unique opportunity to contribute to the debates and network at the highest level.

Yours sincerely,

Jean-Paul Carteron
