KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 4 (KUNA) -- President of the Global Organization of Parliamentarians Against Corruption (GOPAC) Fadli Zon on Wednesday said the Kuwaiti support to the organization helps it play its role and accomplish the tasks at the international level.

Zon, currently Indonesian Parliament Deputy Speaker, was speaking during a meeting with Kuwait Ambassador to Indonesia Nasser Al-Enezi. He praised Kuwait's role in the fight against corruption at all levels, wishing success for the two countries in their efforts at this level.

The two sides discussed ways to develop bilateral relations, especially between the two countries' parliaments, the ambassador told KUNA. (end) mam.kns.ss
